

— High impact lives

High impact lives are not inherited.
They're created.

They're not pretended.
They're created.

They're not fantasized.
They're created.

You do not get a high impact life by wanting it.
You have to create it.

You do not get a high impact life by hoping for it.
You have to create it.

You do not get a high impact life by wishing for it.
You have to create it.

You do not get a high impact life by dreaming about it.

You have to create it.

A high impact life cannot be faked.

It has to be created.

And lived.

Every single day.
