

— The world wants results

No one cares about your problems.

The world wants results.

Whether you choose to admit it or not, individuals are punished for a lack of results.

The punishment comes in the form of:

1. Weak finances.
2. Nonexistent respect.
3. High stress levels.
4. Dramatic relationships.
5. Having to constantly compensate for a weak existence.
6. Immune system challenges.
