

— Nobody talks about this

If you don't create and hold frame, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you don't effectively deal with what's in front of you, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you substitute positive thinking for drive and competence, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you operate from feelings as opposed to commitments, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you show up with low energy, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you count invoices as actual income, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you don't fight for your life, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you live from ungrounded assumptions, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you confuse surface actions for core actions, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you think being reasonable will actually get at the source of things, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you fail to distinguish "language in use," you lose.

Nobody talks about this.

If you think that direct current is actually alternating current, you lose.

Nobody talks about this.
